

DISCLAIMER NOTICE FROM JSAE

Matters to be attended to by Registered Participants of JSAE/SAE International 2011 Powertrains, Fuels and Lubricants Meeting

- 1) Rules to Refund Entry/Registration Fees due to Cancellation or Postponement of the Event
 - a. JSAE reserves the right to cancel or postpone the 2011 P, F&L or to change the schedule or the venue without prior notice, for reason of act of God, terror, etc.
 - b. In the case of any such contingency happening before the opening day: JSAE shall refund an entry/registration fee, including participation fees in various events it will have received before the contingency, less related costs.
 - c. In the case of any such contingency happening during the international meeting: JSAE shall not refund any entry/registration fees.

For example, in the case where JSAE should be preparing delivery of collected papers to each applicant that has already paid an entry/registration fee before the contingency, the fee less costs of bookbinding, packing and shipping shall be refunded.

No damages or compensation, except the refunding of an entry/registration fee as stated above, shall be recovered from JSAE. Therefore, an air fare, accommodation fee, and other expenses paid by a registered participant shall not be compensated by JSAE but shall be subject to an agreement between the registered participant and businesses in charge.

- 2) Voice/Picture Recording and Photo Shooting
As a general rule, registered participants are banned from making a voice/picture recording and/or taking pictures in the venue of the meeting without authorization by JSAE.
